SENIORS Class of 2014

"Upward & Onward"
-Bro. Peter Basso,
late 1920s

"The Senior Class of 2014 was a very unique class. You made me laugh and at times brought me to tears as I marveled at your goodness. You care about one another and this is obvious to anyone. You support each other in times of tragedy and sadness. As individuals I have watched you grow from high school students into men and I am honored to have been apart of that. I wish you well as you enter the world. In the future; if you ever err, then err in the direction of kindness."
- Mr. Kenneth France (Senior Religion Teacher)

1.Ford Lilly rocks out acoustically as Andrew Strenge critiques his performance. 2.Hunter Brennan directs the underclassmen in a 7th grade retreat exercise. 3. Runningback Corbin Patton (12) listens to Coach Fentitta as he mentally prepares for the second half 4. Seniors Johnny Longo, Logan Walton, Destin Aime, and Hunter Corn enjoy their cornmeal and beans eaten as an act of fasting for lent 5. Austin Ladner(12) and Irby Dossett(12) looking strong with their new senior rings. 6. Busy planning the yearbook layout, Mr. Bailey and Christian App take time for a picture.

LEADERSHIP BREAKFAST

The senior class was honored to have the famous Chef, John Besh, as a special guest at their senior leadership breakfast this year. Being a well known culinary expert and veteran of the US Marines, Chef John Besh was truly an inspiration to the class of 2014. He told the present alumni and students of how God inspired his path in life, and how following God's will ultimately helped him fulfill his own dreams and ambitions.

Seniors and past alumni enjoy a plentiful breakfast as they chat about Stanislaus and years past.

SENIOR RETREAT

The retreat offered the Senior Class an opportunity to become closer as friends. Many members of the faculty took it upon themselves to lead the class as role models, reminding them of the values that a man of character must possess.

The Senior Class of 2014 group together for one last picture before leaving the retreat grounds.

RING CEREMONY

The Class of 2014 held their Senior Ring Ceremony at Our Lady of the Gulf Church and was followed by a reunion in the cafeteria.

Taking the podium in OLG Church, Class President Sam Wittman gives a speech to his fellow classmates.

Seniors Cameron Balder, Todd Williams, Sam Wittman, Roe Powell, and Beau Schoen sit and talk of music and other interests.

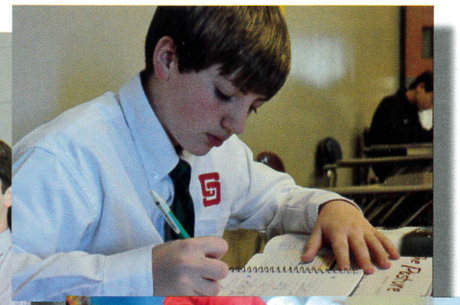
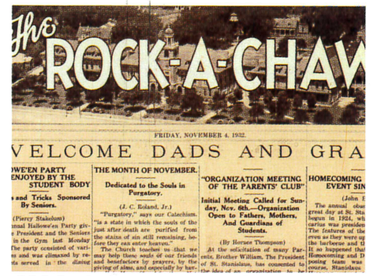
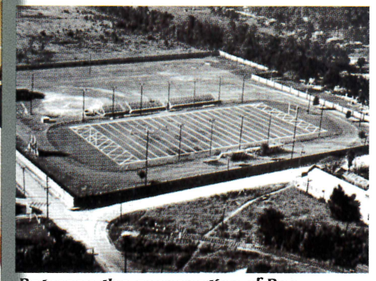
ACADEMICS

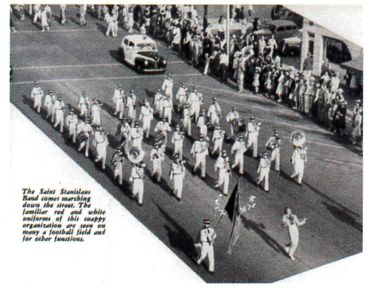




SSC Students assisted by Bro. Edmund O'Hara SC published the first issue of their award winning newspaper "The Rock-A-Chaw" which was given a column in the "Sea Coast Echo"



Between the cooperation of Bro. William Sharkey SC and Coach Harry Glover the "Sidelines Club" was formed in 1936 and immediately began working on the football stadium



Bro. Romauld Robitaille SC takes over the SSC band program in 1932 and transformed it into a marching band which would perform at half time shows and parades in town.

Stanislaus was honored to receive Felix "Doc" Blanchard's 1944 Heisman Trophy which is still on display in the resource center to this day.

Yearbook

With the guidance of Mr. Bailey, Senior Jae Kim works on his pages.

During an outing at the end of the year, senior editors Christian App, Alicia Gates, and Cole Marshall play on the teeter-totter.

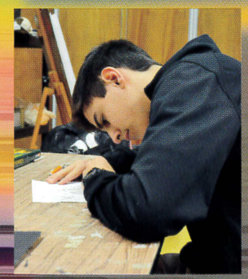
ART

Quarterback Tyler Allen playing the whole field of Stanislaus activities by spending his time outside of practice painting a teapot in the shape of a pig.

A ceramic alligator piece made and painted entirely by senior Robert Simpson took a total of 3 weeks to finish.

In efforts to finish his piece before the bell rings, Daniel Wilkoff works overtime on his piece.



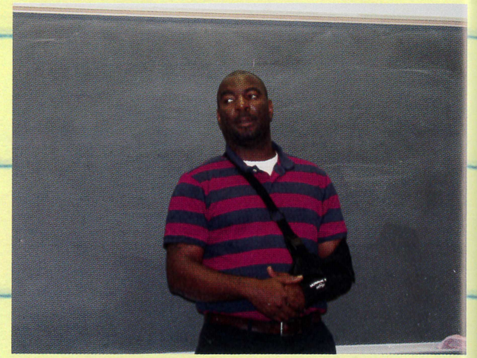
Before the masterpiece comes to life, Brenton Field works tirelessly on his mixed media assignment.

Creating a mug as large as both his hands, Pierce Kergosien, senior, works tediously on every detail.

Mathematic

Calculus (AP) and Math 7 - Dr. Perkins
Tigonometry (H) and Statistics - Mr. Roy
Algebra II and ALgebra I - Coach Handley
Geometry and Pre-Algebra- Ms. Gill

Teaching the basics of all math, Ms. Gill provides the students with the tools they will need for years to come.



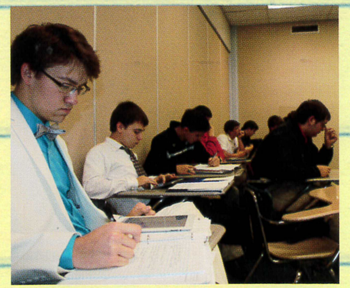
Bringing his own brand of enthusiasm to the classroom, Coach Handley teaches Algebra I and II.

Preparing her class for college, Dr. Perkins teaches her class the concepts of calculus.

As well as teaching, Mr. Roy serves as the moderator for the Mu Alpha Theta math club.

RELIGION

"To me teaching Religion is at the heart of what St. Stanislaus is all about. Here at SSC we constantly hear about "men of character". In Religion class we are able to delve deeply into what character truly means because we teach about God, Jesus, The Holy Spirit, and the Kingdom of God"- Mrs. Bellone



Religion IV gets busy writing an in class response to an article Mr. France handed out to the class.

Mrs. Bellone takes one on one time with Sophomore Owen Betz to clarify the class's lesson.

Mr. France sips his morning coffee while the Senior Class completes questions about morality and ethics.

Coach Manuel elaborates on a famous theological painting and how it relates to Christianity.

Religion II enjoys hearing an in depth lecture on Scripture as Jihoon Kim flashes a peace sign towards the camera.

FOREIGN LANGUAGES

St.Stanislaus offers four years of Spanish and French. The classes begin at a very simple level. Vocabulary and grammatical structures gradually approach native linguistic levels. Audio, video, and computer programs supplement oral and written classroom work. Students practice the four language skills of reading, writing, listening, and speaking every day. The department encourages students to continue developing their language skills beyond high school - Br. Eduardo Baldioceda

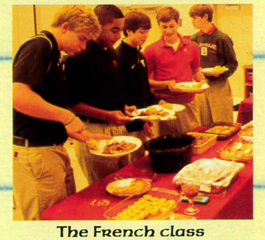
Spanish IV begins their period by reading a daily passage from the Spanish translation of the bible

Mrs. Hogue shows her class the country that speaks French as a native language, France.

Spanish students such as Green Holston spend their two minute break by playing with Br. Eduardo's Mexican toys.

Brother Eduardo gives his class a chance to stretch their legs in order to bring energy back into the classroom.

Giving a casual wave, Pinson Figueroa shows his charismatic disposition as Mrs. Hogue prepares the class for the day.



The French class experiences a "cultural food day "in which they taste authentic French cuisine.

SCIENCES

Student Council

The Student Council at Saint Stanislaus works together to plan fun, social, and entertaining events for students to do with one another. Such events include setting up for pep rallies, running a snack shack for the students during lunch, hosting three dodgeball tournaments, tailgating before the football games, and planning Spirit Week for the week of Homecoming.

A Word From Our Officers

Sam Wittmann, President

"Everybody has ideas, but what you need is people who push those ideas forward. We need students who can tell the administration what the student body wants. By having the Student Council, we help the administration cater to the needs of the students."

Alex Northington, Vice President

"The Student Council is the voice of the student body. It's important that we have a good student council that's active and participating so that communications are up between the administration and the student body, and I think we've established that this year."

RACK NATION

Before the game, the Racks begin their takeover at Pass High. The Rock-A-Chaws went on to beat Pass High 46-9, capping off their undefeated regular season.

The Rack Nation was a driving force of school spirit this year for the Rock-A-Chaws, or Racks for short. Students enjoyed showing their support in numerous occasions and fashions. One of which is the "Rack Cloud", which can be seen as the background. Rack Nation served well for the students and will be a staple of SSC tradition for years to come.

Mr. Cherota

Twenty-six years of science education

Mr. Cherota came to St. Stanislaus in August of 1987, and since that time has taught thousands upon thousands of students about everything that involves science. He will be retiring from the work force here at St. Stanislaus after 26 years of teaching.

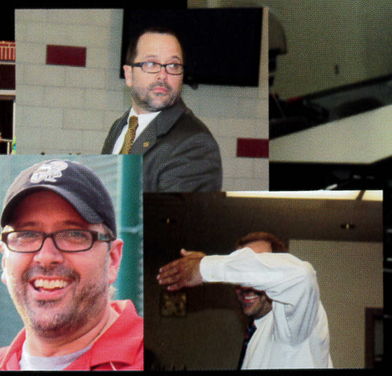
For your many years of service to St. Stanislaus and for enriching the lives of all students here. We wish you the best of luck in your future endeavors and will never forget your unlimited knowledge on any subject that you have shared with us.

Sincerely,

Every student you've ever taught

Mr. Gleber Fan Club

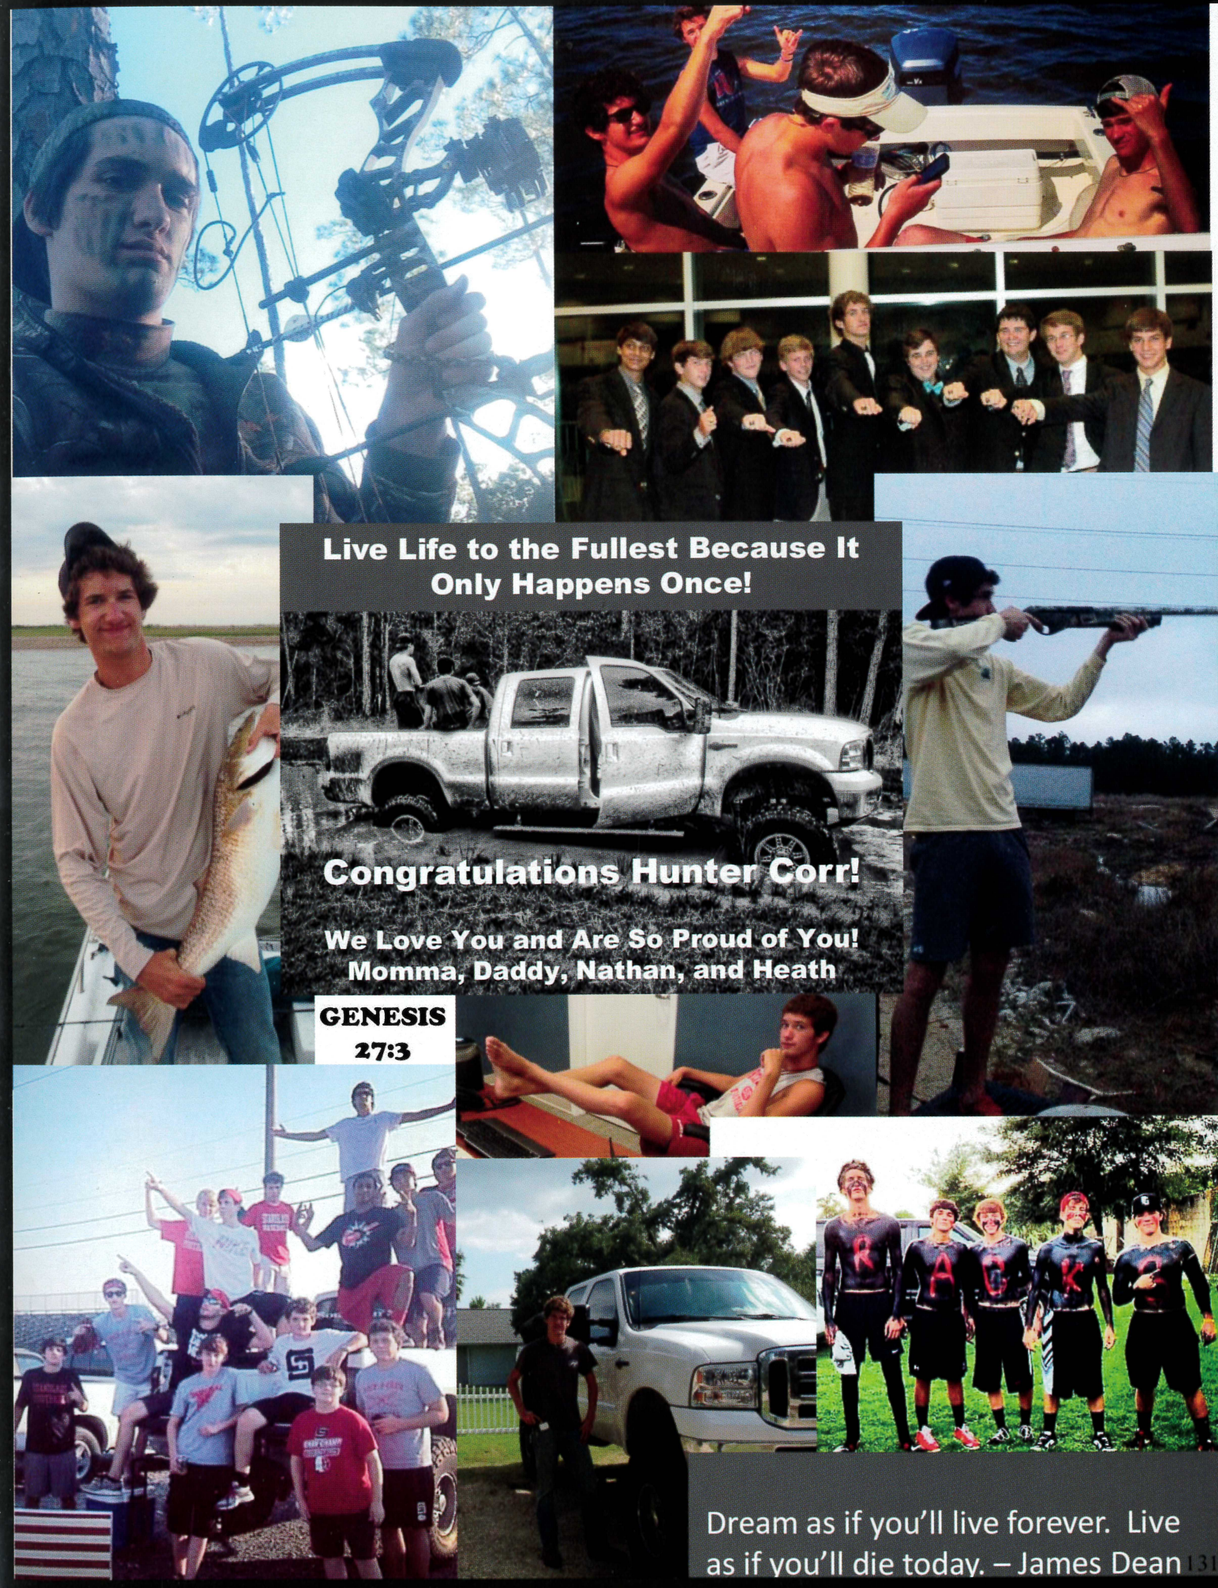
A club dedicated to appreciating Mr. Richard Gleber and to capturing him in all moments - photogenic and not - throughout the year. A personal thank you for all of the amazing photography and terrible candids you have contributed to the yearbooks throughout the years. Keep them coming, you sneaky man, you.



Left, Mr. Gleber eventually caught onto the antics of the yearbook class and began to avoid us at all cost.

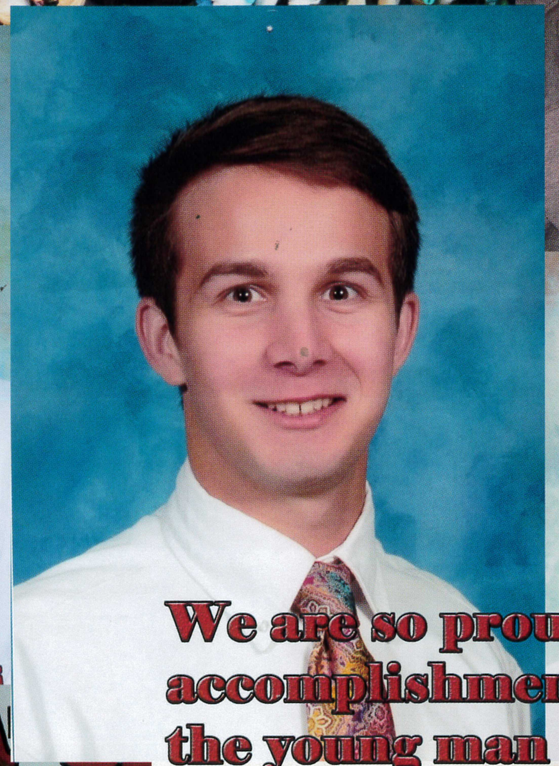
To Christian A.K.A. My Favorite Son – Class of 2014! Congratulations! Your journey as a young man at SSC began in August 2008 and has culminated in May 2014 with a True Man of Character! I love you and I am so proud of you! Momma

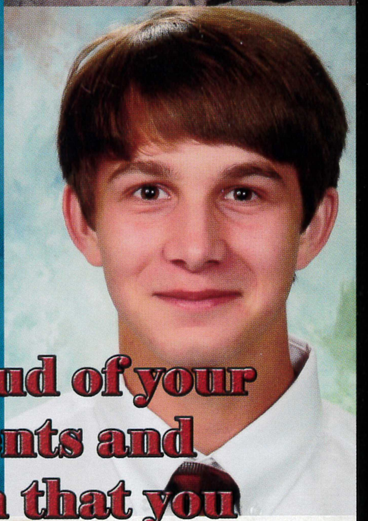
Joshua where do we begin to say how proud we are of you and the man you are becoming. Your sense of humor, your caring soul, and let's don't forget your sense of style. May God bless you on your jouney in life. We Love You! Mom & Dad



Dream as if you'll live forever. Live as if you'll die today. – James Dean

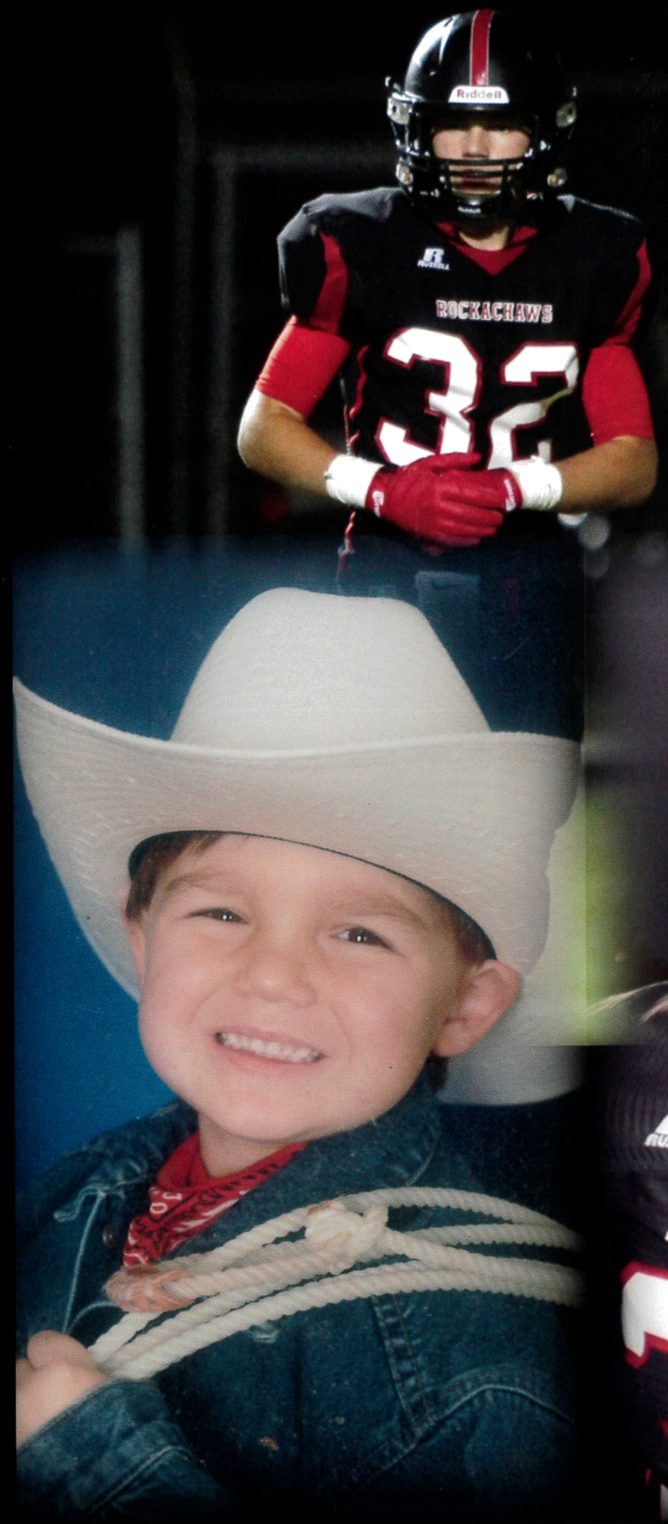
Congratulaions Sam Wittmann!
Love from Mom, Dad and Stephen



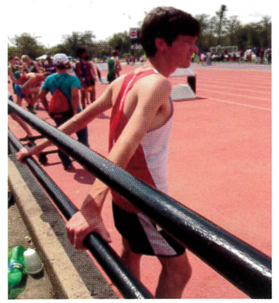


We are so proud of your accomplishments and the young man that you have become!

Lots of love from your whole family!



We are proud of the young man you have grown into. We love you very much. Mom, Dad, Whitney, West and Payton.

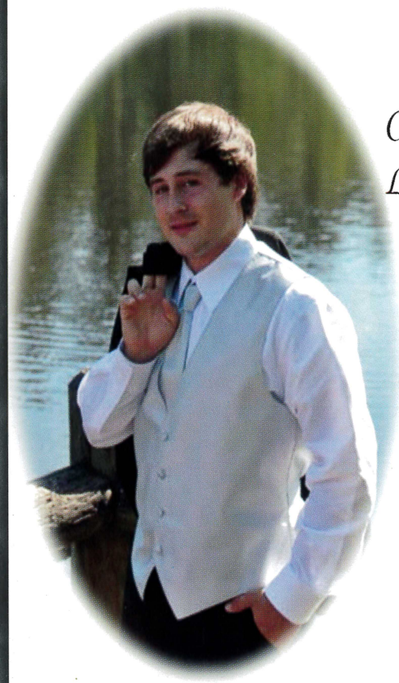


Christian,

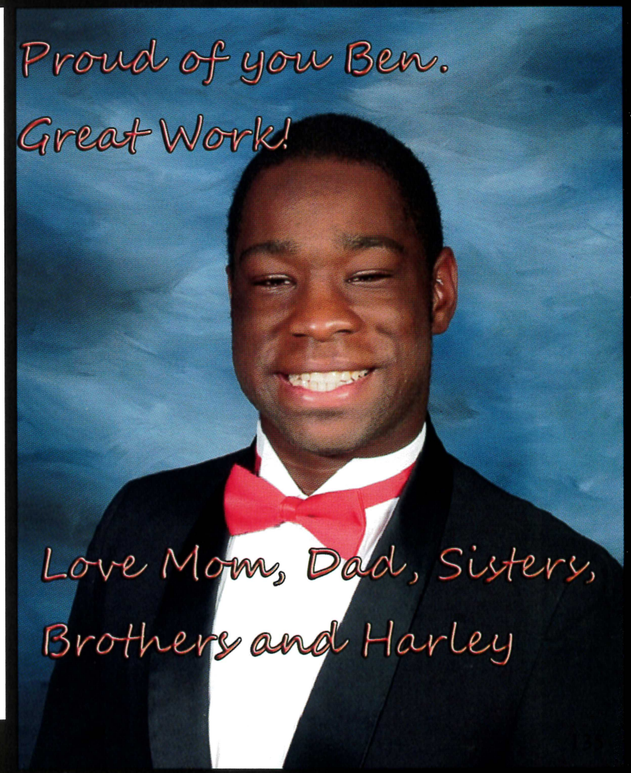
"WEAR SUNSCREEN"

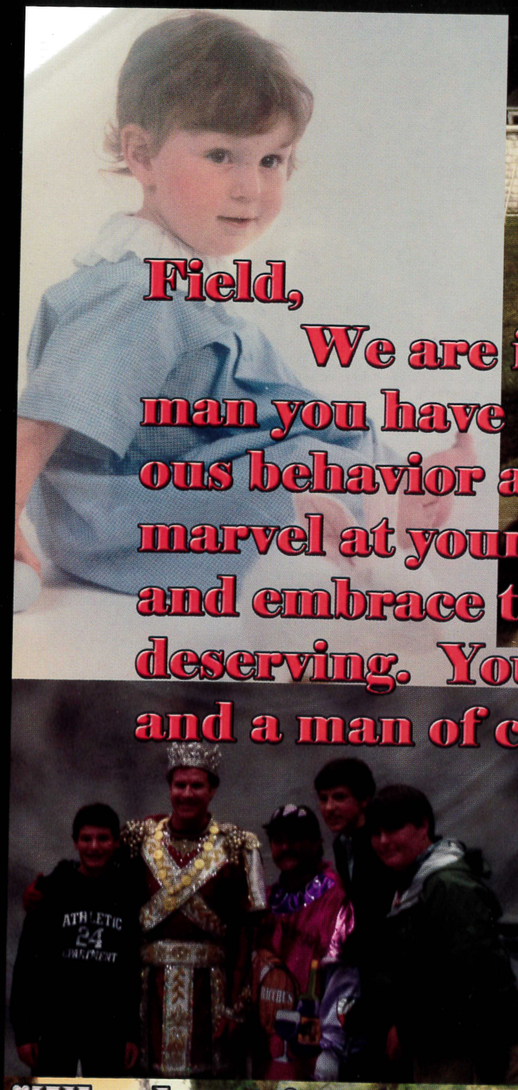
We are very proud of you!

Love, Dad, Mom and Jordan



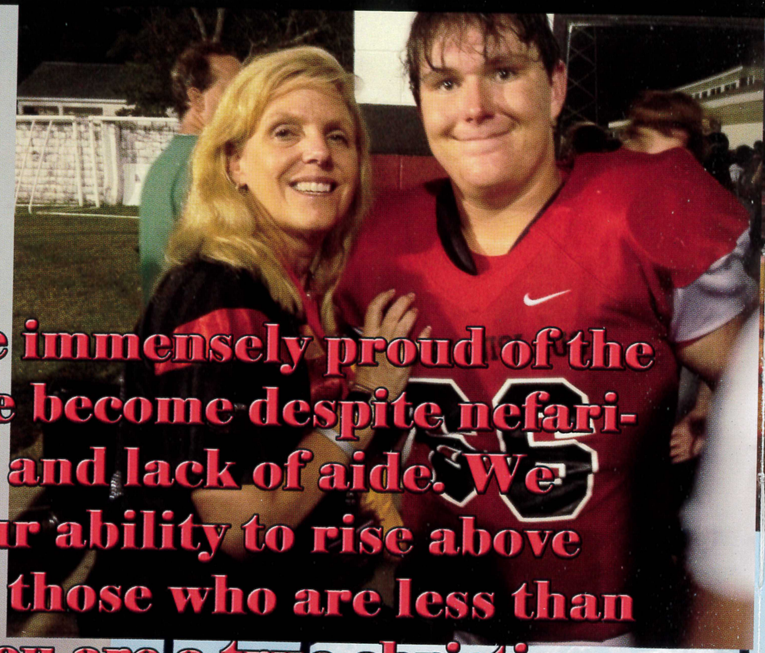
Congratulations Lane Ladnier!!! We love you and are so proud of you! Mom, Dad, Garrett & Jordan





Field,

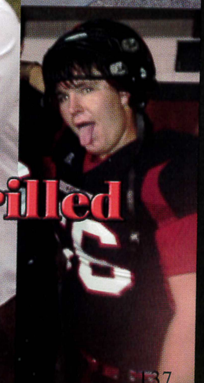
We are immensely proud of the man you have become despite nefarious behavior and lack of aide. We marvel at your ability to rise above and embrace those who are less than deserving. You are a true christian and a man of character.



"The best is yet to come"
William Butler Yeats

We know that at Ole Miss, the college of your dreams on your own and without any prejudice, your accomplishments will blow us away.

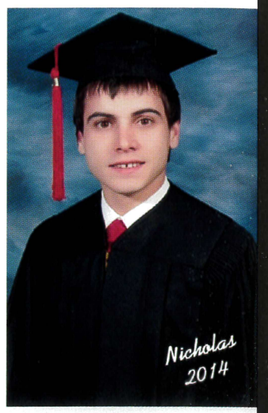
We could not love you anymore and will miss you terribly.
Your Mom, Dad, Jourdan and a host of dogs.



Except Sebastian who is thrilled you are leaving.

Congratulations Nicholas

Love,
Mom and Dad



Noah's Ark

Everything I need to know, I learned from Noah's Ark

ONE:	Don't miss the boat.
TWO:	Remember that we are all in the same boat!
THREE:	Plan ahead. It wasn't raining when Noah built the Ark.
FOUR:	Stay fit. When you're 60 years old, someone may ask you to do something really big.
FIVE:	Don't listen to critics; just get on with the job that needs to get done.
SIX:	Build your future on high ground.
SEVEN:	For safety's sake, travel in pairs.
EIGHT:	Speed isn't always an advantage. The snails were on board with the cheetahs.
NINE:	When you're stressed, float awhile.
TEN:	Remember, the Ark was built by amateurs; the Titanic by professionals.
ELEVEN:	No matter the storm, when you are with God, there's always a rainbow waiting.
